

Pasadena's Chic New Address

Everything's Coming Up Roses The 2009 Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade

We predict 2009 is going to be your year. Literally, from day one there will be much to celebrate, like the sweet scent of roses. That's right, just one teensy weensy block from Lake@Walnut is THE PARADE ROUTE. As in, the 120th Rose Parade®, Pasadena's most hallowed tradition. Featuring marching bands from across the US, fantastic floral floats and the revered Rose Queen® and her Royal Court, we recommend you start practicing your best elbow, elbow, wrist, wrist wave now. After all, the parade is being broadcast on ABC, NBC, Univision, HGTV and several other major networks and you want to look your best when waving "Hi, mom" to the cameras. The Rose Parade offers official grandstand seating via SharpSeating.com, and you can purchase yours today. Like we said, this is your year. The theme is Hats Off to Entertainment, so be prepared to toss yours into the air. Hip! Hip! Parade! .
